

THE Ghost
OF ALFRED FELTON

Alfred Felton

PHARMACIST | VOYAGER | ART COLLECTOR

British immigrant, philanthropist and entrepreneur, Alfred Felton moved into the Hotel Esplanade in 1891.

He filled his rooms with paintings, sculptures, books, maps,
magazines and hand-made, now antique, furniture.
He lived his life in conversation.

When he passed, in his bed here at the Hotel Esplanade, in 1904, he left one of the most far-reaching and innovative legacies on earth, by giving every cent away.

Over the past century, the proceeds of Alfred Felton's estate have supported millions of people in need, especially women and children, and built the National Gallery of Victoria into one of the world's greatest art galleries.

Today, the art purchased by the Alfred Felton Bequest for the NGV is valued at over two billion dollars. It is three quarters of the NGV's total art value.

VOYAGER

Travelling aboard the “California” in 1855 from London to Melbourne, young Felton was no stranger to exploration and opportunity. We pay homage to the worlds of opportunity (new and old) that voyage brought our bright philanthropist as he travelled the British Trade Route to Australia.
